ABSTRACT

It's all about money! Money, from bills to bitcoins, has no intrinsic value beyond what we've collectively agreed to grant it. However, there's no denying that money governs our lives. FORTUNE offers a modern & pop exploration of the power of money, its psychology and the arbitrary and unequal dimensions of our economic system.

FORTUNE is a series of 8 animated documentary shorts in augmented reality, 8 filters for Snapchat & Instagram. 8 people tell how money dictates their lives, how they have to rely on it to survive, or how they think it will bring happiness or freedom. From counterfeiting, to dumpster diving, from selling everything for bitcoin to retiring at age 30: what are we willing to do and give to make a little more money?

The series is developed on Snap Lens AR Studio and Meta Spark AR to bring narrative, animated and interactive AR stories to life on social media.
